Wow, I just met King Louis XIV of France! I went to the Versailles palace, and it was so elegant! Louis XIV keeps his nobility at the palace to make sure they can care for his needs at any time. I could easily see his wealth through all of the decorations and art in Versailles. I could tell that he enjoys using money as it seemed France is in some debt after his exertions. However, his financial advisor, Jean Baptiste Colbert, is trying to make France self-sufficient. Overall, the visit was great, I'll definitely be going back to see Louis XIV and his Versailles palace! #king #monarchy #france #kinglouisxiv #versaillespalace
